

Krydeus – Leader of the Steadfast Magi

by Andrew David Cross

Krydeus, a poor commoner, traveled south from his home seeking knowledge, adventure, wealth, and power. He arrived in Bristol one fateful summer and quickly joined the Order of the Sun taking up a quest from The Band of the Twisted Claw to find and slay Bloodtharken and the Drako Disciples that were helping her to awaken. He organized a group of three mages from The Order of the Sun into The Steadfast Magi and lead them to much success. They each received two favors from the queen herself before she finally signed and awarded them a death warrant for the evil dragon Bloodtharken. After receiving the warrant they set out to find a fabled spear powerful enough to slay even the mightiest dragon. After acquiring the spear they set forth to confront Bloodtharken. Here they found Simeon and after defeating him in a mage battle they drove the spear into Bloodtharken's chest and drank from her heart.
