

RenQuest 2016: Divide and Conquer

By Julie McMillin

An eerie calm hangs over the city of Bristol. It is as if the city witnessed a great battle, a great loss, and is holding its breath awaiting the other boot to fall. No wind stirs the numerous cards upon the "Adventurers Wanted" boards. More flowers lie in the memorial garden. You can taste resolve in the air (mixed with the flavor of garlic mushrooms) as each side wonders who will make the next move.

Will you join the intrepid Travelers of the Band of the Twisted Claw and help bring peace to their fractured family?

Will you join the villainous nobles of the Draco Disciples as they plot to choose a new Praetor to lead them to chaotic victory?

Keep your wits, strength, dexterity and charisma about you! Only you can lead your faction to victory!
