MeDIA Journey
Discover:
Stereotype Search: How many different stereotypes can you find at the faire? How are the stereotypes from Elizabethan England different than the stereotypes from Modern Day America?	What makes beauty beautiful? Find things at the Faire that you think are beautiful. Write them down. Share them with your sister Scouts. Did they find the same things beautiful?	Move away from Media for a short time: Turn off your computer/cell phone. Walk around the Faire and have fun outside!
Connect:
Track the music you hear at the Faire. Is it in the background? Do you hear it in the parades and on the stage? What is the purpose of the music you are hearing?	List some of your favorite parts of attending the faire. Did you like the costumes? The music? Did you prefer the stage shows? Ask yourself why each item was your favorite. Was there a pattern? Who influenced your choices?	Look at your interests and favorite things, and choose something you could take to a higher level? Did you like the music - learn a song. Did you like the dancing - practice a dance. Did you like the costumes - design a costume for yourself!
Take Action
Take your skills and favorite things, and work with your sister scouts to create a media journey for younger girls. Make a video, create a website, write a song.	Share your adventures with a younger troop of girls. If they also attended the faire, talk to them about what their favorite part of the faire was.

Welcome to Scouts Days 2019!

Mission Sisterhood Journey
Discover
Define what "Sisterhood" means to your troop. Find examples of Sisterhood at the Faire	Look at Female Friendships on stage at the Faire. What different friendship types do you see portrayed. How different are these friendships than friendships in your life?	Define Beauty: What one scout likes, another may dislike. What about the Faire is beautiful to you? Each scout should write down the things she finds beautiful. Compare when you get home. Discuss.
Connect:
Play Body Language Charades at the Faire. Watch the performers talk to each other. Watch the performers talk to patrons. How is the body language different?	Watch the Fairies interact with each other. See how much can be communicated without saying any words at all.	Healthy Bodies: Spend the day walking around the faire. How do you feel afterwards? Pay attention to the physical activities that you do during the day.
Take Action
Make sisterhood take center stage: Write a one act play about your day at the faire. Act it out for a younger scout troop. How does sisterhood fit into your play?	Name it, Create it, Share it! Create something that shows what you have learned on Mission: Sisterhood. Share it with Cadettes who are bridging to Seniors. If you know Cadettes who also attended the Faire, you are already sharing sisterhood.
